1. Exploration IDs are specific to this report. See Table 1 for additional information.

2. The locations of the explorations were determined from existing site plans and profiles, sometimes of marginal quality; all locations should be considered approximate.